

Are you interested in Garden History?

Would you like to learn how English gardens have changed through time?

Learn about the gardens of the Roman invaders, the medieval herb gardens, the formal gardens of the Tudors & Stuarts and the great English landscape movement through to the gardens of today!

Small informal classes will be held from January 2016 at RISC, London Street, Reading, RG1 4PS.

If you are interested in attending a course, please visit the facebook page: 'Learning for Pleasure' or contact Helen at: bigpinkflower@googlemail.com
